

BSRM CAPABILITY STATEMENT

Public Relations | Marketing | Digital Marketing | Advertising

Blue Scorpion Reputation Management (BSRM) exists to support in-house teams with strategic communication and content creation services, reputation management and crisis communication. We are focused intensely on quality, and listening is our first order of business. We deliver unique value in that we first understand our clients' interests and needs to build trust while achieving strategic goals.

With a DBE certification in the state of Georgia, BSRM is committed to excellence, holding accounts specific to the video gaming industry, animal and pet care industry and the agriculture and farming industry for our state and federal clients.

What sets BSRM apart from the competition?

- Our training and qualifications reflect prestige, including image and reputation management.
- Increased value through the various software platforms that we use for media outreach, social media marketing and digital marketing measurement.
- Proving value, showing ongoing improvement by demonstrating a quantifiable return on investment.
